Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-25, drawn to a bonding method, in which the metal bonding portion of the object has a hardness of 200 Hv or less.

Group II, claim(s) 26-49, drawn to a bonding apparatus wherein objects to be bonded have metal bonding portion having a hardness of 200 Hv or less.

A metal bonding portion having a hardness of 200 Hv or less is common technical feature of Inventions I and II. However, JP 2001-138255 discloses a metal bonding portion (gold bump on a chip) having a hardness of 200 Hv or less [¶ 6] and so it is not Applicant's contribution over prior art. Thus, the common technical feature is not a special technical feature under PCT Rule 13.2 and claims 1-49 fail to form a single general inventive concept. Therefore, unit of invention is lacking and restriction is proper.

2. Upon election of Group I or II above, a further species election is required.

Group A: The objects to be bonded are light emitting element and a probe [appears to be claim 21 in group I OR claim 47 in Group II).

Group B: The objects to be bonded are chip and wafer [appears to be claims 22-24 in Group I OR claims 48-49 in Group II).

Art Unit: 1793

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature of Group A is bonding a light emitting element and a probe which is not present in Group B. The special technical feature of Group B is bonding a chip and a wafer which is not present in Group A.

The following claim(s) are generic: Claim 20.

4. A telephone call was made to Ajay Jagtiani on 9/30/08 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
